Bill Sedgwick of Acton won the first two events in the NASCAR Winston West Series. Then, shortly after returning to the series, Mike Chase won back-to-back races.

Now Doug George can add his name to the two-race won list winning consecutive races at the Fisco Farms and Home 200 Aug. 20 at Altamont Raceway Park.

George added to his lead in the series with 1,509 points.

After setting the course record in a qualifying session Saturday, Late Model driver Rick Crow of Canyon Country finished third in the 30-lap main event at Kern County Raceway.

He finished behind Kenny Kranzler and Rick Hopkins, both of Simi Valley.

Former Saugus Speedway drivers Craig Rayburn, and Amy and Brian Horst had impressive showings at Kern County Raceway Saturday night as well.

Rayburn, a Pro Stock driver from Simi Valley, won his 30-lap main event, holding off Chuck Kevwitch of Canyon Country, who finished fourth, Craig Jensen and Don Dorman.

Amy Horst was the fast qualifier in the Daredevil Stocks, but older brother Brian won the 25-lap main event.

The Wet and Wild Enduro 150 scheduled for this Saturday has been postponed until later in the season, Mesa Marin Raceway race officials announced. No new date has been set at this time.

"We have received over 20 entries for the race," Jack Long, director of competition at Mesa Marin, said in a press release. "A great deal of interest has been generated, but we feel that if we were to hold the event later in the season, the number of entries would at least triple."

The $10,000 Wet and Wild Enduro was a new addition to the 1995 Mesa Marin race schedule. The first Enduro was held in July when Mike Riale of Bakersfield took home the checkered flag.
